

Master of Public Administration

The Master of Public Administration (MPA) is a professional degree that prepares persons interested in public service for middle and upper level administrative positions. The program's student and teaching oriented faculty seek to contribute to the development of professional individuals with an ethos of democratic administration by providing them with a combination of solid academic learning and concrete practical experiences.

The MPA Program is located in the Department of Political Science and International Affairs. The Program works in cooperation with a number of other departments as well as the A. L. Burruss Institute of Public Service that provides community services and technical assistance to nonprofit and public organizations throughout the greater Northwest Georgia region.

General Requirements for Admission to the MPA Program

MPA Program admission requires:

1. A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university with at least 2.75 grade point average;
2. A minimum combined score of 900 on the verbal and quantitative portions with a 3.5 minimum score on the analytical writing section of the General Test of the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) or a combined score of 450 on the Graduate Management Admissions Test (GMAT). International students must also provide satisfactory TOEFL scores. (Students submitting scores for the GRE taken prior to October 1, 2002, must submit a minimum combined score of 1350 on the verbal, quantitative, and analytical portions of the Graduate Record Examination);

3. An application letter that states the applicant's interest and goals for the MPA Program and the potential use of the degree;
4. A current résumé; and
5. Two letters of recommendation that address the applicant's potential for graduate study and use of an MPA degree.

Students are admitted to the program based upon an overall review of all credentials including any work and community service experience that indicates potential success in graduate work and in professional public service.

Transfer Credit

Up to nine semester hours of graduate work from other accredited institutions may be transferred. To be transferred, course work from other institutions must correspond to Kennesaw State's MPA curriculum. Students will need to provide course descriptions and syllabi wherever possible, and the amount of credit granted will be at the discretion of the program director. Such course work may be no more than five years old.

Grades

Expectations for satisfactory graduate level student performance are detailed in Academic Policies section of this catalog.

Petition to Graduate

MPA candidates must petition to graduate at least one semester prior to completion of their degree requirements.

Master of Public Administration Course Descriptions

CM 7100. Introduction to Conflict Management. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to graduate study.

This course presents an overview of the emerging movement toward alternative forms of conflict resolution and of conflict management as an interdisciplinary field. Readings are drawn from a broad range of academic disciplines, including law, economics, social psychology, sociology, anthropology, political science, as well as dispute resolution. Students are introduced to conflict resolution theories, dispute resolution processes, conflict management system design, and application of conflict management to the public policy environment.

GEOG 7100. Geographic Information Systems for Administrators. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to graduate study.

This course is designed for administrators (not GIS managers) who wish to integrate a geographic information system into the operations of their local agency. Students will be introduced to basic GIS technology, but course emphasis is placed on conceptualizing and understanding how GIS can aid daily operations in administrative capacity. Guest lectures and specific case studies, including, planning and zoning, transportation, utilities, emergency services, taxation, and waste management, will be examined in class. Students at a minimum should be comfortable working in a Windows environment, have some experience working with databases, and be accomplished Internet users (ftp, browsing, etc.). No previous exposure to GIS or mapping is necessary.

PAD 6200. Fundamentals of Public Administration and Public Service. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to graduate study.

Covers the public policymaking process, civil service and administrative agencies, and policy implementation, with brief introductory forays into motivation, leadership, decision making, finance and budgeting, and personnel. Contrasts between public and business administration will be included.

PAD 6250. Research Methods and Computer Applications. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to graduate study.

Develops familiarity with methods of research and analysis useful to public service practitioners. Survey and research design, statistical methods such as descriptive and inferential statistics, including multiple regression, will be covered. Involves intense hands-on computer work using statistical software.

PAD 6300. Public Organization Theory. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to graduate study.

Offers conceptual and practical perspectives for understanding and managing organizations. A spectrum of theories of organization will be examined. The concepts and issues to be discussed include mechanical and organismic aspects of organizations, organizational culture and politics, organizational psychodynamics, and recent theories of organizing. The implications of the theories for a reflective practice will be the focus of class discussions.

PAD 6350. Public Service Budgeting. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to graduate study.

Techniques of financial management, chiefly in local agencies, covering the origins and types of modern budgeting, from line-item, program and performance, to zero-based budgeting. Attention will be paid to both the politics of the budgetary process and the financial and accounting principles involved, with a strong emphasis on hands-on exercises.

PAD 6450. Governmental Relations. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to graduate study.

Examines the interaction between the federal, state, and local levels of government in the United States and their interaction with non-profit and other private sector organizations. Special attention is given to the constitutional and fiscal relationships between these levels of government.

PAD 6500. Policy Analysis. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: PAD 6250.

Deals with the theoretical issues and practical techniques of policy analysis. Focus will be on problem definition, alternative and criteria formulation, and decision making phases of prospective policy analysis. Students will learn to conduct simple analyses for policy decisions. Policy-analytic report writing and other forms of policy communication will also be emphasized.

PAD 6600. Program Evaluation. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: PAD 6250.

This course is designed to introduce the basic methods of policy and program evaluation. These evaluation methods are used in needs assessments, monitoring social programs, and assessing the effectiveness and efficiency of their impacts. Quantitative approaches, such as experimental, quasi-experimental, and reflexive designs and the social, political, and ethical context of evaluation studies will be discussed.

PAD 6700. Human Resource Management in Public Service. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to graduate studies.

This course addresses theories and principles of managing people in public and nonprofit organizations. Issues that will be addressed are the application of human resources concepts and processes, the legal and political influences impacting human resource management, and the distinctive role of human resource management in public and nonprofit organizations.

PAD 7100. Philanthropy and the Nonprofit Sector. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: Admission to graduate study.

Provides students with a comprehensive overview of the historical development of community service and nonprofit organizations. Particular emphasis will be given to distinguishing the nature of nonprofit organizations from business and traditional government organizations. Also, the course will emphasize the unique philosophy of nonprofits, especially the notions of charity, philanthropy, community caring, and volunteerism.

PAD 7120. Health Policy. 3-0-3.

Prerequisite: PAD 6200.
