

Georgia Family Business of the Year winners announced

Atlanta Business Chronicle

Friday, February 29, 2008

The Cox Family Enterprise Center at the Coles College of Business at Kennesaw State University has named four companies as winners of the 2008 Georgia Family Business of the Year Awards.

The winner of the small business category is Americus, Ga.-based Parker's Heating & Air Conditioning. Self-service discount used auto parts superstore Pull-A-Part LLC of Atlanta won in the medium business category. Gift item company Burton + Burton of Bogart, Ga., is the tops in the large business category. And the Cox Century Award winner is Harris Ace Hardware & Building Supply of Jesup, Ga.

The Georgia Family Business of the Year Awards ceremony is slated for May 19 at the Renaissance Waverly Hotel in Atlanta.

"Since 1991, the Cox Family Enterprise Center has honored the best in Georgia-based family businesses," said Joe Astrachan, Cox Family Enterprise Center executive director. "We are proud to once again recognize a great group of winners and finalists who have withstood the test of time, flourished due to their strong values and savvy business sense and made an impact as community leaders and innovators."