SECOND ANNUAL COBB COUNTY FRENCH COMPETITION

- In recognition of National French Week Cobb County is proud to celebrate our 2nd Annual French Competition, open to all middle and high school students enrolled in French this year, Levels I - AP+, including native speakers.
- It will be held at Kennesaw State University on Saturday, November 11, 2006 with the help of the Department of Foreign Languages and the Office of International Services and Programs.
- The primary goal is to recognize the achievements of our students and to inspire them to continue their study of French as well as to attract other students to the study of French.
- A secondary goal is to raise community awareness of the continuing need for French language study.

Monday & Tuesday, November 13 & 14

9:00 - 4:00 PM

Mme Regina Yaou will be visiting classes on campus. Mme Yaou was born in 1955 in Dabou, Ivory Coast. She was brought up by her maternal aunt, went to the grammar school in Abidjan, then to the Collège Voltaire and later to the Cocody Technical School. After a break of several years, she began studies at the University of Tours, where she obtained a 'General Studies Diploma.' Mme. Yaou has traveled extensively in Europe and in the United States. She lives in Abidjan but is currently doing some research in the US (2006). Her latest book is forthcoming: Le glas de l'infortune (N.E.I-CEDA - 2006). She has also published romance novels under a pen name in the collections Adoras and Clair de lune.
