All international applicants must document their ability to meet all educational and living expenses for the entire period of their intended study before this university can issue a Certificate of Visa Eligibility (Form I-20 or DS-2019).

Read the following instructions carefully before completing and submitting this form.

Instructions Part I

Answer questions 1–7 completely.

Instructions Part II

Indicate the sources of your funding, the amounts available, and the totals for each year, and have the sponsors verify these amounts by signing this form. Include supplementary documentation as indicated. Each applicant must document financial support equal to or greater than the amounts indicated below. (These figures are estimated costs and are subject to increase without notice.)

Estimated Budget for International Graduate Students

Tuition $14,670

Fees (health insurance) $870

Room and board³ $9,588

Total (per year of study) $25,128

¹ Tuition indicated is for the academic year (September–May) only.

² Fees and health insurance are listed for the full year.

³ This includes housing and food costs for nine months. The university estimates that students will need an additional $1,000 for books and supplies, and $1,500 for personal expenses and incidental costs.

Dependent Support

A student wishing to have his or her spouse or children accompany him or her must document the following amounts for each family member per academic year of intended study (freshman: four years; transfer: two to three years).

For spouse: $5,975 per academic year

For each child: $3,975 per academic year

Source of Funds Required Documentation (All documents must be original; photocopies are not permitted.)

Personal/Family Savings: Signatures of sponsors on this form. Bank verification in a separate statement of account documenting that at least $24,186 is available in liquid assets; salary statements and property cannot be used.

Scholarship: Official scholarship award letter from the institution awarding the scholarship. The award letter must contain the name of the applicant, the amount of money available for each year of study, the duration of the award (including beginning and ending dates), the degree and major field of study for which the award is tenable, and the name of Kennesaw State University as the institution to which the award is applicable.

Government or Employer: Official letter indicating amount of support and containing the same information as for “Scholarship” described above.

Loans: Official letter from credit institution indicating approval of the loan and the amount approved.

■ Bank statements carry no liability on the part of the bank.

■ All documentation must be dated within six months of the date of initial enrollment at Kennesaw State University and translated into U.S. dollars.

■ This information is required for visa eligibility determination only.

■ Kennesaw State University reserves the right to require additional financial documentation from applicants whose countries impose currency exchange restrictions or other obstacles to the transfer of currency. Applicants from such countries will be notified of specific requirements after they have submitted completed applications.
