

CLASS (Communities for LeArning SuccesS)

Spring Semester 2006

ALL RESIDENTIAL FIRST-YEAR STUDENTS (with fewer than 15 credit hours) ARE REQUIRED TO PARTICIPATE IN CLASS: All non-residential first-semester, full-time students are required to register for either KSU 1101 or one of the KSU 1102 (CLASS) learning communities. Biology majors can take BIOL 2101 to satisfy this requirement.

KSU 1102/01: Banned Books, Censorship & Academic Freedom

CRN 11616

Do we still ban books in this country? Can the government censor books and other materials, or does the Constitution prohibit that practice entirely? Can the government, or any other entity, censor what professors and students read, discuss, and explore in class? This learning community will tackle those questions. The answers just might surprise you.

KSU 1102/02: The Whole You: Transitioning Your Mind & Body to KSU

CRN 11617

College is a time of transition. Your classes will be different from those in high school; your schedule will be different; even your eating and exercise habits may be different. Explore strategies to relieve stress, avoid the "Freshmen 15" and succeed academically as you focus on "the whole you" in this community.

KSU 1102/03: Me, Myself & College

CRN 11725

For freshmen, the arrival at college signals both an achievement and a stressful transition. Virtually all students come with two objectives: to achieve academically and to succeed socially; College provides a unique environment for the discovery and definition of self, fostering independence, freedom, and autonomy. This CLASS will explore these issues utilizing literature of the "self" and will create a collaborative learning environment between the individual and others through discussion and teamwork.

KSU 1102/09: Why Wellness Works

CRN 11760

Do you want to know more about how you can become a successful student? If so, then join us as we look at the concept of "wellness." Wellness refers to more than just the absence of disease or being physically fit. The wellness model focuses on self-responsibility and encompasses six different aspects: physical, occupational, emotional, social, intellectual, and spiritual. Each of the dimensions is separate, yet interrelated. Once students learn to achieve a good balance among the dimensions, they can function at their optimal level – an essential for becoming a successful student.
