

Learning Communities - Spring '05

LEARNING COMMUNITY #1: You Are Not Alone: Adult Learners Beginning their KSU Journey [This is for incoming first-year students only.]

KSU 2290/01 (CRN #11686)

Welcome to one of the greatest of adventures: university learning! Entering the learning environment as an adult is exciting, but it can be stressful both physically and mentally. Writing skills and the ability to make positive lifestyle choices are the building blocks that form a foundation for your academic success. Join this community of motivated adults and start your adventure now.

LEARNING COMMUNITY #2: The Rise and Fall of "Isms": Socialism, Communism & Capitalism in Global Economies

KSU 2290/02 (CRN #11687)

What's the difference between socialism and communism? What happens economically when a society moves from socialism to capitalism? Why should we care about economies that operate differently from ours? These questions and more will be answered in this learning community that combines two General Education courses required for all KSU students: Global Economics and English Composition II.

LEARNING COMMUNITY #7: Harmonies of Words and SoundsKSU 2290/07 (CRN #11734)

Whether you consider yourself a musician or just a fan of music, there's no doubt that music is an enriching part of life. This community will focus on music as one of the aspects of art that impacts society. By attending musical performances, becoming a critical thinker about the music you hear, and writing about those experiences, you'll have an opportunity to expand your creativity while also sharpening your analytical skills. This community combines two General Education requirements for all KSU students.
