Experience

Personal World Building Project 2023 - Present

- An ongoing personal world building project in which the goal is to develop a world with a deep lore.
- This world will feature characters of several characters.
- All characters are supposed to be from different countries and continents with their appearance reflecting this.

Syd Mead Inspired Illustration July 2023 - July 2023

- A project assigned by my concept art professor where we were supposed to create concept art inspired by the work of Syd Mead.
- Work would feature a character and an environment
- The goal was to develop not only a better understanding of the concept art process and familiarize ourselves with the process but also develop a deeper understanding of concept art.

Character Design Project Sep. 2022 - Nov. 2022

- A class project where the goal was to create several characters to familiarize ourselves with the concept art process.
- This project included making silhouettes, variations, turnarounds, final render, callouts, pose sheets and expression sheets.
