

Construction Management Specialty Concentration

Mechanical, Electrical, and Plumbing Project Managers oversee commercial mechanical, electrical, and plumbing projects. Responsibilities might include:

- Estimating
- Environmental compliance
- Safety
- Managing staff
- Delegating tasks
- Monitoring resources
- Overseeing full scope of construction and maintenance
- Tracking progress of infrastructure work
- Identifying scheduling issues
- Administering contracts
- Working with purchasing
- Negotiating cost changes

Average Starting Salary
⇒ $64,000-$78,000

Mechanical, Electrical, and Plumbing contractors oversee MEP Project organization of

- HVAC systems
- Refrigeration systems
- Plumbing
- Electrical systems

KSU Mechanical Contractors Association of America Student Chapter

- ◆ Mentoring by professionals
- ◆ Opportunities to use real-life project in competition

KSU National Electrical Contractors of America Student Chapter

- ◆ 2nd place in the Video Competition
- ◆ Internships before graduation and fulltime work upon graduation