

Bagwell Center Spring 2019 Film Series:

"Inspired by a true story, Little Pink House is about small-town EMT Susette Kelo's fight against the destruction of her home and neighborhood for the benefit of a large corporation. Emerging as the reluctant leader of her neighbors in an epic battle that goes all the way to the U.S. Supreme Court, Kelo inspired a nation and helped millions of Americans protect their homes."

A Korchula Pictures film in association with Brightlight Pictures
