

Dr. Shawn Little is the Associate Vice Chancellor of Healthcare Education for the University System of Georgia. She earned her Doctor of Nursing Practice from Chamberlain University and her Master of Science in Nursing in Education from Walden University. She graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Kennesaw State University.

Dr. Little has advocated to fill gaps in the healthcare workforce and has been actively involved with state legislation and removing barriers for those wishing to enter a caring career field.

In addition, Little has served in leadership roles with the Georgia Association of Nursing Deans and Directors, Georgia Nurses Association, Georgia Nurses Foundation, and the Georgia Nurses Leadership Coalition.

Dr. Little has dedicated her career to developing programs that support and empower nurses.