

ACCOUNTING MAJOR

Today's accountants need more than accounting knowledge; they need the business acumen and communication skills to provide meaningful insight and guidance. Our graduates have these tools and more, preparing them to meet the needs of a dynamic and challenging marketplace.

We provide a quality education, empowering our students for successful careers by cultivating leadership, which is why demand for our graduates continues to grow. With your degree, you can work almost anywhere... for profit, non-profit, or in time, even strike out on your own!

WHAT CAN I DO WITH A MAJOR IN ACCOUNTING?

Accounting is a profession specializing in the "language of business," certification opportunities include:

- Public Accountant (CPA)
- Internal Auditor (CIA)
- Management Accountant (CMA)
- Fraud Examiner (CFE)

Average starting salaries range from $55,000-$70,000 and depending on your career path and experience level, can climb as high as $100,000 or more by mid-career.

HOW WILL I CONNECT WITH BUSINESS?

Over 80% of our students participate in internships and co-ops annually, which often turn into jobs after graduation. You will find our students and graduates at The Big Four Accounting Firms as well as:

- Bennett Thrasher
- Carr, Riggs, and Ingram
- Cherry Bekaert
- Delta Airlines
- Graphic Packaging International
- Microsoft
