

ECONOMICS MAJOR

Economics Majors today apply their skills solving problems, developing strategy, and creating solutions. It's not about tasks, it's about understanding the big picture. Sure, there will be plenty of math and/or data to help you cultivate solutions, but if you are willing to work hard, the reward can be great!

Your education will combine the well-rounded perspective of the liberal arts with the practical applications of business, bringing together the best of both worlds. This can open your future to virtually limitless possibilities. When you know how to think, there isn't much that can stand in your way.

WHAT CAN I DO WITH AN ECONOMICS DEGREE?

Our program provides an optimal foundation for graduate or law school. But, if you choose to move directly into the workforce, there are plentiful opportunities, especially as an analyst or consultant.

You will have the power to make things better and more efficient. This expertise will prepare you for a successful career in any field, including financial research, marketing, healthcare, and everything in between.

HOW WILL I CONNECT WITH BUSINESS?

We enjoy connections and partnerships that benefit our program in a variety of ways, including:

- UPS
- Bloomberg LP Tokyo
- Houlihan Lokey
- Henssler Financial Group

WANT TO ENGAGE?

- Econometric Center
- Omicron Delta Epsilon
- Student Managed Investment Fund (SMIF)
- Education Economics Center
- Economics & Finance Club
- Bagwell Center for the Study of Markets and Economic Opportunity

WHY CHOOSE ECONOMICS?

- Excellent Starting Salaries
- A Focus on Critical Thinking
- Effective Gateway to Graduate/Law School
- Diverse Career Opportunities

DID YOU KNOW?

- Economics graduates are one of the highest lifetime salary earners among non-medical/engineering undergraduate majors. Average starting salaries often surpass $55,000!
- Economics majors have the highest average LSAT score of any major.
