CASS Corner

Our Coles Ambassadors for Student Success got to experience an amazing leadership opportunity during April. The CSS Team put together a leadership retreat one Saturday and helped each of our ambassadors earn their Truist Emerging Leadership Certificate!

We played games, shared delicious food, and learned what it truly meant to be a leader in today's business world. It was a fantastic experience for everyone involved!

If you have any interest in becoming a Coles Ambassador for Student Success or want to know about who they are and what they do, visit their website at the link below!
