Dr. Daniel Sachs

- 22 years of service to Kennesaw State University
- School of Art and Design
- Associate Professor of Art History
- Helped develop the Art History program at KSU
- A superlative teacher; students loved taking his classes, as he was an exceptional storyteller.
- He taught in many summer programs at our Montepulciano campus in Italy.

Patsy Lai

- 22 years of service to Kennesaw State University
- Office of Fiscal Services Bursar's Office
- Patsy has served her 22 years of service at KSU in Fiscal Services Payroll Office and Bursar's Office.
- Patsy implemented detailed processes within the Bursar's Office related to our cashiering functions. These detailed processes helped KSU survive many financial audits.
- Patsy was a major contributor during the KSU/SPSU consolidation for the cashiering functions across both campuses.
- Patsy is the best office party planner.

Dr. Harriet Bessette

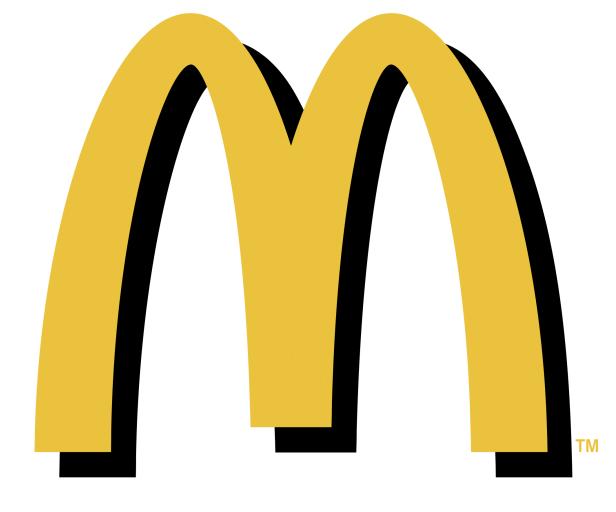

- 22 years of service at Bagwell College of Education
- Inclusive Education department
- Described as a calm leader, thorough and reflective work, and a true scholar. Other descriptive words include grace, dignity, professionalism, kindness, and empathy
- Co-edited the book Utilizing Visual Representation in Educational Research with Camille Sutton-Brown that was published in December 2023
- Relaunched the Ed.S. program in 2022 with 36 students in the first cohort

Sandra Cobb

- 20 years of service to Kennesaw State University
- Retiring from Community and Professional Education
- Sandra's level of institutional knowledge and resourcefulness will truly be missed here at CPE. Sandra has been a wealth of knowledge on contracts, legal questions, and finance. If she does not have the answer, she knows where to get it. She always knows what needs to be renewed and when it needs to be renewed. Her ability to track and maintain contracts has been truly invaluable to CPE. Her financial and contract knowledge will leave a big hole here at CPE.
- Sandra is one of a kind! She has helped hold things together for CPE like "glue" in the Finance Department. Her high standards and ethics regarding our revenue and budget have kept us on track. As a p-card holder, I have appreciated her patience and diligence (and careful eye).
- Sandra's contributions to CPE have been nothing short of extraordinary. Her dedication, expertise, and commitment have played a crucial role in shaping the success and growth of CPE over the years. Through her leadership and hard work, Sandra has not only managed our operations with precision but has also been a mentor and friend to many of us, guiding and inspiring us every step of the way.
- One of Sandra's greatest skills is her attention to detail.

Dr. Mark Kremer

- 19 years of service to Kennesaw State University
- School of Government and International Affairs (SGIA)
- Co-director of the Honors Great Books Program
- Directed Great Books program in Montepulciano, Italy for seven years
- Published three books while at KSU
- Wonderful colleague, great friend it was a terrible loss for KSU students to lose him as a teacher

Florence Farley

- 19 years of service to Kennesaw State University
- Fiscal Services Payroll
- Florence also worked in HR and Benefits at KSU.
- This marks the end of an era as we bid farewell to Florence, who has been an invaluable asset to our team for 19 years. Her dedication, hard work, and positive attitude have left an indelible mark on all of us. As she embarks on this new journey, her contributions will be remembered and cherished.
- Thank you, Florence, for everything you have done and may your retirement be filled with joy, relaxation, and happy memories!

Cheryl Shinall

- 19 years of service to Kennesaw State University
- Lecturer in the Department of Technical Communication and Interactive Design
- She taught part-time as she transitioned in her career. Excited when offered to move into full-time work at her alma mater!
- Former students penned a compassionate story in The Sentinel to honor Cheryl as she was battling breast cancer during that time.
- Represented KSU in the Governor's Teaching Fellowship program.
- She instills in her students to live life to the fullest and give their best to achieve their personal, academic and career goals.

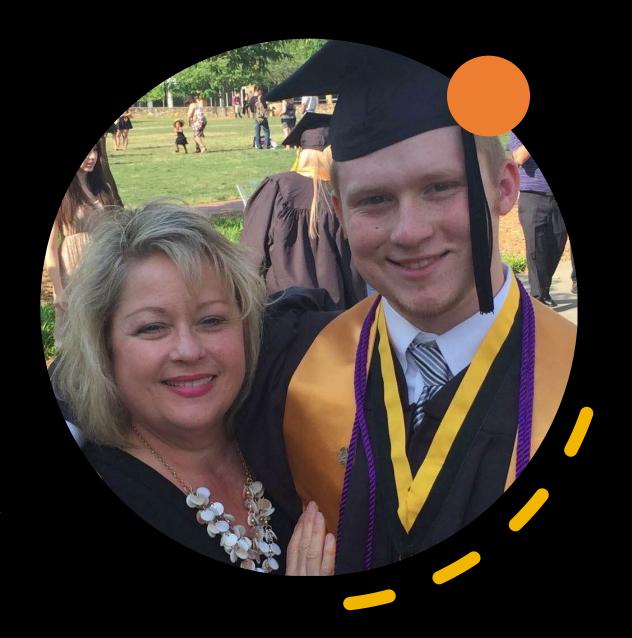

"Five-Dollar Footlong"

Jayne Rogers

- 17 years of service to Kennesaw State University
- Kennesaw State University Foundation
- Caretaker of our donations and bank accounts for the past 10 yrs. She always makes sure the mail is delivered and checks are deposited timely.
- She successfully managed Positive Pay for our bank accounts preventing numerous attempts of check fraud on our accounts.
- I always knew when Jayne was out of the office because someone would have to get Kathy's folder out of the safe.
- Has always been an integral part of our annual audit preparation and working with the auditors to provide them what they need
- She has always been a dependable employee and one that I can count on to get something done.
- She is a prayer warrior, loving, caring, uplifting, advice giver, and most of all a great friend.

Judy Barnes

- 15 years of service to Kennesaw State University
- New Student Programs, Enrollment Services
- Served as the Office Manager for New Student Programs
- Judy was one of the first people new students met at KSU during their KSU orientation session. Her work directly impacted the student experience, and she was known around campus as the go to person for orientation logistics. She also led our student assistant team and truly loved developing student leaders and helping them reach their goals. Our team loved working with Judy, and we will miss seeing her on orientation days!

Shirley (Imani) Mwangi-Davis

- 15 years of service
- Undergraduate Admissions
- Imani's co-workers describe her as friendly, out-going, funny, a team player, honest, and dependable.
- One of Imani's greatest skills is flexibility. She has been through several business practice changes and has conquered them with little disruption in work performance.
- A challenge Imani was able to overcome was learning new technology. She overcame that challenge due to constant software upgrades and new software installations. With proper training and documentation, she was able to adapt to software changes quickly.
- As Imani's supervisor, I appreciate her being a team player. She is always willing to help wherever she is needed and at the end of the day she will make sure all the documents are caught up.

Molenda Elem

- 14 years of service to Kennesaw State University
- Office of Fiscal Services Bursar's Office
- Molenda served all 14 years of service in the Bursar's Office.
- Molenda is extremely gifted with providing excellent customer service to our students.
- Molenda always displayed a pleasant demeanor.
- Molenda's years of experience made her the "go to" person for any student account issues for the Bursar's Office.

Judith Cole

- 11 years of full-time service to KSU in the Dr. Bobbie Bailey School of Music
- Judy was featured as a soloist this year with the KSU Symphony Orchestra performing the Concerto for Piano and Orchestra by Florence Price.
- Judy was a pianist for countless KSU Opera Theater and Musical Theater performances ranging from Mozart's Le nozze di Figaro to Into the Woods.
- She taught accompanying, piano lessons, class piano, music theory, aural skills, and music theory for musical theater majors, and performed as a collaborative pianist for hundreds of students, faculty, and guest artist recitals over the past 16 years.
- Judy is an expert performer in musical theater pit orchestras and is frequently heard at the Fox Theater, City Springs Theater, and many other venues, as well as for services at The Temple in Atlanta.

George Johnson

- 11 years of service to Kennesaw State University
- Central Receiving and Distribution
- George began working at KSU in Building Services and later transferred to Central Receiving and Distribution.
- One of George's greatest skill was his adaptability. George adapted well to new team members and numerous changes during his time in Central Receiving and Distribution.
- George's quiet demeaner and quick wit will be remembered amongst his colleagues and his skills and insightfulness have inspired the next team of Service Crew members.
- George was the kind of team member that supervisors want and need. He was reliable, hard working, and a leader that could be depended on to get the job done.
