CALL FOR PRESENTATION PROPOSALS! ALL THINGS OPEN WEEK 2024

We invite all interested parties to submit a presentation proposal for Kennesaw State University Libraries' second annual celebration of All Things Open Week, co-hosted by Texas Tech University Libraries! All sessions will be virtual.

You might be wondering, what does “all things open” encompass?

- Open access publishing
- Open data
- Open educational resources
- Open pedagogy
- Open science
- Open-source software
- Open licensing and fair use
- And any other efforts to increase access and equity!

Speakers can choose from different “open” tracks and themes, and there are options for lightning talks, full-length presentations, or interactive Q&A panels. The submission portal is open now through March 1, 2024, at 11:59PM.

For more information and to submit a proposal, please follow this link:
