

2025-2026 Instructional Excellence Fund for V.I.T.A.L. Faculty

Program Purpose

The Radow College Instructional Excellence Fund for V.I.T.A.L. faculty supports professional development for part-time instructional faculty teaching in the Radow College. It funds instructional activities and professional development activities directly connected to student success and the faculty member's instructional responsibilities.

Eligibility

Qualifications: Applicants must be employed currently as a part-time faculty member in the Radow College.

Preference: Preference is given to applicants who have not received support from this program over the last year.

Limit: There is a limit of one award per faculty member per fiscal year.

Allowable Expenses

Funding Limit: $500

Fundable Activities: Funding may be requested to support the faculty member's instructional responsibilities and professional development. Examples include attendance at a workshop or conference; purchase of items that have clear professional, instructional, and/or student success purpose; and participation in special teaching activities.

Application Procedure

Procedure: Applicants must complete the application form and route it through DocuSign to obtain the signature of their chair/director. Completed applications should be emailed to Greg Paul (gpaul11@kennesaw.edu).

Attachments: If making purchases, applicants should work with their department staff members to obtain confirmation the purchase is an allowable expense, per KSU and USG policy. Documentation of the confirmation must be included with the application.

Award Process

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis as funds remain. Requests for funding will be accepted through Friday, January 23, 2026.

Funding Expenditure

Awarded funds must be expensed during the fiscal year in which they are given, must align with all college and university policies, and meet all spending deadlines.
