

ANTHROPOLOGY INTERNSHIP & PRACTICUM

ANTH 3398 & ANTH 3397

BEGIN THE SEARCH EARLY

* Talk with faculty and learn about career and research opportunities.

*Meet with Career Planning and Development and review the Anthropology Internships & Research page.

Get involved: Volunteer, network, attend workshops and seminars to learn about opportunities and identify areas of interest.

*Attend Job and Internship Fairs hosted by Career Planning and Development each semester.

NEXT STEPS

-Meet with your academic advisor to discuss the process and review your academic plan. Recommend meeting once a semester!

-ANTH 3398/3397 Prerequisites include ANTH 4450 Research Methods, 90 credit hours, and permission of the instructor.

-Attend the ANTH 3398/3397 information session the semester before your intended experience.

HOW TO REGISTER

-ANTH 3398 - Refer to the How to Receive Academic Credit for an Internship handout. You cannot register directly for ANTH 3398

-ANTH 3397- Reach out to the faculty member you will be working with for approval. You cannot register directly for ANTH 3397.

-Be proactive and begin planning a semester or two before your intended internship or practicum. Do not wait until the last minute to begin the search!

CONTACTS

Christine Jacobs- Academic Advisor
cjacob36@kennesaw.edu

Devin Witt- Career Advisor
dwitt8@kennesaw.edu

Dr. Susan Kirkpatrick Smith- Internship Supervisor
ssmith1@kennesaw.edu

"The future depends on what you do today."
-Mahatma Gandhi

