*If you are graduating in the semester that you complete your Senior Capstone Experience, you must submit this preliminary form to the Department of Psychological Science by the deadline listed above.

Senior Capstone Substitution Policy:

Psychology majors must complete a Senior Capstone Experience as a part of their degree requirements. This requirement may be met through the approved substitution of one of the following courses:

- HON 4499: Honors Senior Capstone Project
- ISD 3398: Interdisciplinary Studies Internship (under the Diversity & Community Engagement Certificate program)

The prerequisites for all Senior Capstone Experience options consist of the following:

- For Fall 2019-Fall 2025 Catalog Years:
 - Complete PSYC 4100 with a "C" or better – must be completed before capstone course (cannot be completed concurrently with capstone)
 - Complete one course from each of the four areas with a "C" or better. (Only one of the four area courses may be completed concurrently)
- For Fall 2026 to Current Catalog Years:
 - Complete PSYC 4100 with a "C" or better – must be completed before capstone course (cannot be completed concurrently with capstone)
 - Complete PSYC 4410 or PSYC 4415 or PSYC 4345 or PSYC 4455 with a "C" or better
 - Senior standing (90+ credit hours)
- Students must submit an application before they will be eligible to register.

In order to meet the Senior Capstone Experience requirement through substitution, the following conditions must be met and completed satisfactorily. Failure to do so will result in denial of the course substitution.

HON 4499 – Honors Senior Capstone Project (3 credit hours)

- 1) Complete the Honors Capstone Experience Sequence (HON 4497 & 4499) under direct supervision of a full-time PSYC faculty member
