

Prerequisites for the MSCJ program:

Applicants with undergraduate degrees not in criminal justice, criminology, or related studies will be required to complete the following two courses (six hours) of undergraduate coursework:

- (a) Criminology
- (b) Research Methods in Criminal Justice.

These undergraduate hours will not count towards the graduate degree requirements.