

KENNESAW STATE
UNIVERSITY

Department of Foreign Languages

Minor in Korean

The minor in Korean requires 15 hours (5 courses) of Korean coursework.

KOR 2001 and KOR 2002 may be counted towards the minor; all remaining coursework must be at the upper-division level.

Current offerings include (please select 5):

KOR 2001: Intermediate Language and Culture I

KOR 2002: Intermediate Language and Culture II

KOR 3200: Critical Reading and Applied Writing

KOR 3302: Practical Conversation

KOR 3303: Grammar and Composition

KOR 3304: Readings in Culture I

ASIA 4400: Directed Study

ASIA 4490: Special Topics in Asian Studies

ISD 3398: Internship

FL 4400: Directed Study

SA 4490: Upper-division Study Abroad or Internship

Advanced speakers of Korean should consult with a Korean Program advisor about testing options using the Advanced Standing examinations available in the Department of Foreign Languages. Program Total (15 Credit Hours)

Notice

In order for your minor to appear on your transcript, you must fill out a special “Minor Form” with the Registrar when you petition to graduate.

Please address questions to
Dr. Jeongyi Lee, Associate Professor of Korean, (jlee234@kennesaw.edu).