

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP, formerly known as Food Stamps Program), helps households that have limited income and resources to pay for the cost of food. A single individual, families, and individuals living together are eligible to receive food stamps if they meet certain requirements.

Who is eligible?

- A citizen of the United States.
- Legal Permanent Residents who have had their green cards for 5 years or more.
- Qualified immigrant children under age 18, refugees, and certain elderly and disabled individuals are eligible without a waiting period.
- Someone who is not eligible due to immigration status may apply on behalf of a U.S citizen or eligible noncitizen household members.
